

CarFreeDays

Sunday, September 7 from noon until 6 p.m., a route along Alki Avenue SW between California Way SW and 63rd Avenue SW (see map) is opening up to pedestrians and bicyclists as part of Mayor Greg Nickels' campaign to

"Give Your Car the Summer Off."

The event is a chance to see how livable the city is when people drive less.

Car Free Days are here.

What does that mean for you as a resident?

- A chance to play in the streets
- A unique opportunity to meet neighbors
- An opportunity to support local businesses
- A way to support the fight against global warming

Questions?

Visit our Car Free Days web site at:

www.seattle.gov/transportation/carfreedays.htm

Learn more about "Give Your Car the Summer Off" at:

www.SeattleCAN.org

Play. Walk. Bike. Shop. Breathe.

Parking will be restricted from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. along the route. We encourage you to plan ahead and observe posted parking restrictions to avoid being cited or towed.

Access exceptions will be made for residents along the corridor if off-street parking is available, emergency vehicles, and people with disabilities.

Whatever activity you are engaged in please make sure to leave at least four feet of space free on sidewalks so wheelchair's can move through safely.

To minimize impacts to transit the Water Taxi Shuttle will continue operating along Alki Avenue during the event.

We appreciate your patience as we experiment with Car Free Days.

Ideas for participating

- Come out and play, roller skate, jump rope, or bike
- Hold street game competitions like kickball
- Set up a chess tournament
- Display your art

For more information, please contact:

Dawn.Schellenberg@Seattle.gov or call 206.684.5189

If Seattlites drive every vehicle 1,000 miles a year less (about 20 miles a week) we can meet our current climate pollution reduction goals.