

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Alki Homestead/Fir Lodge is being offered for sale to Seattle's concerned historical organizations such as:

Historic Seattle

4Culture

Southwest Seattle Historical Society

The Washington Trust for Historic Preservation

Sale Price - $2,000,000 An endowment fund of $500,000 would be provided from these funds by the current owner Tom Lin

Alki Homestead/Fir Lodge was offered to the Southwest Seattle Historical Society under the same terms in 2004 by the previous owner, Doris Nelson, according to her family.

These historical organizations claim to have more extensive resources and the expertise needed to ensure that the Alki Homestead/Fir Lodge retains its historical place in the community and would not be torn down.

Tom Lin will accept offers from interested historical organizations no later than July 31, 2010. Beyond July 31st the property will be offered to the general public at a different sale price and terms.

Contact Information: Tom Lin at savealkihomestead@yahoo.com