CAMP DETAILS

The camp gathers around Coach Slingsby for a wrap-up of the day's activities (the camp was held at Boren MS during construction in 2010).

The Sealth Basketball and Life Skills Camp is entering its fourteenth year. The philosophy of the camp is to provide a positive and fun learning experience to youth by exposing them to the fundamentals of basketball and life, including the values and qualities that we feel are necessary to be successful in these arenas.

Camp Directors are Head Boy's Basketball Colin Slingsby, Athletic Director Sam Reed, and Head Coach of Denny International Middle School Diallo Jackson. Slingsby will be entering his ninth season as head coach and his eleventh season overall on the coaching staff at Sealth. Among his honors, Coach Slingsby is a two-time Metro League Coach of the Year, was awarded the 2006-2007 "statesman award" for the State by the PNBOA for sportsmanship and was named the 2009-2010 Star Times Coach of the Year by The Seattle Times. The 2010-2011 Seahawk team qualified for the 3A State Tournament, winning two games and advancing to the play in the Tacoma Dome. Also on staff will be 2011 graduate Tre'Von Lane who was featured in The Seattle Times article "The Kid Coach" (January 2011), along with a number of current and past Seahawk basketball players.

The coaching staff's vision of the Sealth Basketball Program is that all of our players will graduate on time, move on to some level of higher education, and leave Sealth with the values necessary to enter the world as positive young men. Since 2001, 37 of 40 graduating seniors have progressed on to college. The hard work of the coaches and young men in our program are helping produce young men who are responsible student-athletes and positive representatives of Chief Sealth International High School.

Sponsored by The Associated Student Body (ASB) of Chief Sealth International High School & Friends of Sealth (Alumni Association).

High School coaches, current and former high school and college players will provide coaching by exposing campers to the fundamental skills of the game through proven coaching methods. Our camp does not guarantee success as a player but it will expose campers to the ingredients necessary to becoming a skilled player, and successful high school student-athlete.

Life Skills: Daily lectures will cover topics such as goal-setting, academic success strategies, and important qualities and values such as hard work, respect, integrity, self-discipline, and other important life lessons.

Insurance: All campers must provide their own medical insurance coverage.

Accommodations: Each Camper will receive a camp t-shirt and have opportunities to win small prizes throughout camp. Campers must provide their own lunch. It is suggested that each camper bring his/her own water bottle (although water stations are available).
