Rainier House Good Neighbor Policy

In order to preserve neighborhood relations, all Rainier House residents agree to abide by the good neighbor policy. This policy states specifically;

1. No littering in the neighborhood.
2. No loitering in the neighborhood.
3. No yelling or fighting on the Rainier House porches, or in the neighborhood.
4. No panhandling in the neighborhood.
5. No purchasing of drugs or drug paraphernalia in the neighborhood.
6. No annoying, bothering, or disturbing of neighbors, businesses, or other people in the neighborhood.

The Rainier House neighborhood is defined as the whole area of the Rainier valley, South of Dearborn.
