

Be a BEACH NATURALIST in 2016 Puget Sound beaches belong to all of us

Register by February 23! Training begins March 2.

As a Beach Naturalist, you'll learn more about Puget Sound beaches and their inhabitants, and you'll be trained to help visitors enjoy the beach without harming it.

- Receive 22 hours of training from March through May, then spend three or more days educating beach visitors through the late spring and summer.
- Volunteer at Richmond Beach, Carkeek Park, Golden Gardens, Olympic Sculpture Park, South Alki Beach, Lincoln Park, Seahurst, Des Moines Beach Park, Saltwater State Park, Redondo Beach or Dash Point State Park on low-tide weekdays and weekend days from May 23 through August 3, 2016.
- Help us protect the places and things we understand and care about. Volunteer!

To register, email BeachNaturalist@seattleaquarium.org.

For additional program information:

Contact: j.mathisen@seattleaquarium.org or (206) 693-6189

Visit: SeattleAquarium.org/beach-naturalist for dates and times

The Beach Naturalist program is sponsored by the following partners:

Seattle Parks and Recreation • The City of Burien • The City of Des Moines • The City of Shoreline

