

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: October 30, 2020

CONTACTS:

ILWU Coast Longshore Division: Jennifer Sargent Bokaie, 415-583-9889

Pacific Maritime Association: Randy James, 203-982-8641

ILWU AND PMA ANNOUNCE ELECTION DAY SCHEDULE FOR WEST COAST PORTS

First shift operations will cease at 4 PM on Tuesday, November 3

SAN FRANCISCO, CA (October 30, 2020) – The International Longshore and Warehouse Union Coast Longshore Division (ILWU) and the Pacific Maritime Association (PMA), the union and employer group that move cargo on the United States’ Pacific Coast, have announced modified work hours on November 3, 2020.

The ILWU and PMA have agreed to cease all operations coastwise on the first shift at 4:00 p.m. on November 3, 2020, to allow additional time for workers to vote in the General Election. Work will commence on the second shift without change.

The announcement of the Election Day schedule covers all 29 ports on the West Coast of the United States, in California, Oregon and Washington.

###